The 'H' is formed by three strokes: a vertical line down on the left (labeled '1'), a vertical line down on the right (labeled '2'), and a horizontal line connecting them at the top (labeled '3'). To the right of the 'H' is a simple line drawing of a fedora-style hat. Below the hat, the text "H for Hat" is written in a large, black, sans-serif font. At the bottom of the page is a large grid for writing practice. The grid consists of 6 columns and 10 rows. Each cell in the grid contains a three-line writing guide. The first five columns each start with a grey uppercase 'H' in the top row of the first three rows, followed by empty space for practice. The sixth column is empty. The entire worksheet is framed by a thick border of small black stars.
